

AASU EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION LEADERSHIP AWARD

Please see a faculty member if you would like to be nominated.

- holds office in community and/or professional organization
- contributes significantly in classroom leadership
- assumes active role in contributing to the learning environment
- demonstrates initiative in responding to perceived needs
- promotes professional involvement of others
- builds relationships within the group
- empowers others
- maintains a vision of possibilities
- demonstrates positive attitude
- exemplifies an engaging, inviting, and encouraging sense of community

AASU EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION SERVICE AWARD

Please see a faculty member if you would like to be nominated.

- shows concern for others
- recognizes the importance of service to others
- works with community or civic organizations
- involved in Week of the Young Child planning and/or other professional activity
- contributes to the community (makes a commitment and makes a difference)
- demonstrates responsibility in responding to needs
- seeks opportunity to serve others and the community
- exemplifies an engaging, inviting, and encouraging sense of community